CANADIAN PARENTS FOR FRENCH

Details for Eligibility & Requirements

University of Ottawa

Eligibility:

- To receive the prize, winners must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents or have protected person status.
- Be admitted and enrolled as a full-time student for the first time in an undergraduate program.
- Be enrolled in the French Immersion Stream, if offered in your program.

Requirements:

- Students must register for 6 credits (2 courses) taught in French in both semesters of the academic year. These can be French as a Second Language courses (grammar, writing skills, etc.) or subject courses that are taught in French.
- In the case of a first-, second-, or third-place prize, recipients must maintain a 5.5 Cumulative Grade Point Average (equivalent to a C) to renew the scholarship.

Notes:

- The first-, second-, and third-place prizes are renewable, and all the prizes may be combined with uOttawa's Admission Scholarship (up to $3,000) and French Studies Bursary ($1,000 annually.) The maximum potential total of the combined awards is $19,000 over 4 years. The prizes can be deferred upon request.
- There is no 'cash value' to the prizes if the winner chooses to study elsewhere.
- A student can only receive one scholarship, regardless of the number of times they win at the Concours d'art oratoire. In the case of multiple wins by a student, they will qualify for the most generous scholarship.

Université de Saint-Boniface

Eligibility:

- The number of years for which a student is eligible for the award corresponds to the duration of their program. For example, a student who has won second prize and is enrolled in a 2-year program could be eligible to receive $1,500 per year for 2 years.
- These scholarships are offered to winners of the Concours d'art oratoire in the above categories.
- Students must be enrolled in a three or four-year undergraduate university program (minimum of 24 credits, including 21 credits taught in French at USB) or in a college program of two years or more (minimum of 80% of a course), immediately at the end of grade 12 or one year after high school graduation.

Renewal Criteria:

- Maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or more;
- Register for each consecutive year of their program (minimum 24 credits per year in a university program, including 21 credits taught in French at USB or 80% of a course load in a college program.

Notes:

This award cannot be claimed if the student wishes to transfer their credits to USB after completing their first semester or subsequent semesters at another post-secondary institution.

One can only receive this scholarship once, regardless of the number of times one wins the Concours d'art oratoire. Winners who have not yet graduated from high school may defer their prize until September after graduation or one year after graduation from high school.

Université de Moncton

Eligibility:

- The scholarships are for students who study at any of the three campuses of the Université de Moncton.
- The student must be enrolled for a minimum of 11 credits per academic session.
- The prizes are renewable for a maximum of four years. Students must maintain an average of 3,80 or better.
- The prizes may be combined with other Université de Moncton's admission scholarships such as the admission merit scholarship (up to $3,000 annually) and,
    - For students from anglophone schools, scholarships for pursuing studies in French as a second language ($6,000 for the first year of study, renewable at $1,000 the following years; thanks to the contribution of the Government of Canada and the administrator of the program, the ACUFC, as well as the Government of New Brunswick);
    - For students from francophone schools in minority setting, $2,000 for the first year of study.
- If the winner cannot use the scholarship because they have not yet received their secondary school diploma. The scholarship will be held until the following September when the student has received their diploma.
- The scholarship will not be valid for students who are attending another institution and wish to attend one of the three campuses of the University of Moncton on a part- time basis.

Université Sainte-Anne

Eligibility:

To be eligible for a Université Sainte-Anne scholarship, the winner must

- Meet the University's general eligibility requirements;
- Be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident;
- Be enrolled full-time in a university or college program;
